News this week...

It has been awesome to see some bright, smiling faces on morning assembly these last 2 weeks. It is an exciting time for all, when we see our Kindergarten Transition underway. Mrs Parkinson has been thrilled with how all our new students have made the transition to school life. This is such a crucial time for them and it couldn't be going any better!

If you haven't already, you'll receive a call from Mrs Rattey or Mrs Hanrahan regarding Health Care Plans for your children. This will only be the case for those students who have a diagnosed medical condition. It is vital that we have all the information we need, so we can continue to provide the safest learning environment we can for all children.

Numbers were a little light for our Parent/Teacher Interviews. Every day is an opportunity to catch up with your child's teacher and gain an insight to how they are progressing and what you may be able to support at home. If at any time you wish to meet with classroom teachers, learning support staff or myself, please contact the front office, we'd love to see you!

On Monday, Jenny Cox from the NSW Department of Education is coming to visit UCS. Jenny looks after all things Work Health and Safety. She will also be updating our Bushfire Evacuation Plans and giving our school a once over, ensuring we are meeting all guidelines that are set.

We also have Christine Keys from the Board of Studies coming in to speak to our Year 11 and 12 students on Thursday. Christine will inform all our students of the requirements for Preliminary and HSC study.

We also have the lovely Nadine from Red Cross coming to lead workshops on Healthy Eating with our Primary classes on Friday.

Head down, rump up and I'll see you all soon!
